

Richie Greenberg

Please direct all queries, comments and availability to:

Richie Greenberg

Press and Media Office

Tel: (202) 975-9269

Email: press@richiegreenberg.org , or: commentary@greenberg.news

Website: richiegreenberg.org

Twitter: @richieSF2016

Richie Greenberg is a long-time San Francisco resident, business advisor, political commentator, and former candidate for mayor (June 2018). Richie entered the political arena in 2016, focusing on quality of life issues, government corruption, the homelessness crisis, crime, and public transportation issues. He has been featured in interviews with local and national networks such as Fox News (Fox & Friends, Varney & Co, Maria Bartiromo), ABC, CBS/KPIX, NBC, KRON4, SF Chronicle, the SF Examiner, Sputnik News, New York Times, Epoch Times, NTD TV, KFI John and Ken Show, KALW and KPOO radio, and more.

Richie Greenberg is available for network TV and radio interviews, commentary, analysis, and podcasts. He is San Francisco-based.

Subject matter includes San Francisco-centric issues such as:

- Homelessness crisis, causes, proposals and failures
- Demographics of voters, candidates, registered parties, voting characteristics
- Current local political races, local ballot measures
- Spike in crime, public safety, police and failing criminal justice system
- Housing, tenants' rights, residential building permits and fees
- Sanctuary City policies and illegal immigration defense
- City proposal to enable heroin and drug injection sites
- Perils of small business ownership, taxes and over-regulation